My DEAREST IDA: Your sweet letter of the 12th I found here to-day and telegraphed at once to "get a girl." Why, my darling, you do not look and seem to be alize at all the cause of my absence. Can't you understand that I want you to get well and I thought it best for you that I should stay away a little longer and give my darling a chance to get strong and well before I come to claim her, and while she is doing so I am looking around not to see other women (my Ida is lovely and pretty enough for me), but to determine where it is best for us, now, and for I.

and the sweet babies, to live, when all is right and we are at last in the enjoyment of that which we have long ^{long} ~~wished~~ ^{waited} ~~waited~~ ^{waited} for you my little wife and I in name, the papa of the darlings that are mine and yours and so much loved by us. Oh, darling, how can you be otherwise than perfectly happy in the anticipation of the happiness that is so near and so sure. I am staying now at Long Branch, but run up here every day or two to see parties on business. All men, no ladies. Tour true. FRANK J. BOWMAN.

MY DEAR IDA: I am waiting to see Willis and get some money from Edgar; expect to do both to-morrow and will be on train to-morrow night for Chicago and happiness. Yours, FRANK.

AT CITY HALL.

The advocates of the Adams Electric Elevated Railroad bill, who left City Hall at 1 o'clock this morning were ill-humored. They had received almost positive assurances from some of the Councilmen that they would support the bill, and expected to secure enough votes to get the bill through last night. Yesterday afternoon John Mazon, of the Lindell Railway Company and Mr. P. K. Maffett of the Missouri Railway Company, dropped in at City Hall. President Peper of the Broadway line not only fought the bill himself, but was represented in the arguments by an attorney.

Mr. Smith P. Galt. Yesterday afternoon the friends of the Adams bill went out in search of Councilmen. Messrs. Stone, Haines, Straub and Frank were counted as favoring the road. Among those who worked for the bill was Ed Butler, who also visited the City Hall yesterday. After a few words with some Councilmen who happened to be at the hall, Butler left saying "the dog's dead." The opposition had unexpectedly set to work and accomplished the defeat of the bill beyond any question. Straub was absent and Frank was the only member who voted for the measure. The Adams advocates are disgusted with the results, which have rendered reconsideration almost hopeless.

Jail Statistics.

Jailer Siegmund forwarded his report for February to Mayor Francis to-day. During the month 129 prisoners were committed. Of this number 113 were defendants in State cases and 14 in United States cases; 119 were males and 10 females; 95 white and 37 colored; 88 married and 91 single. The natives are given as follows: United States, 98; Germany, 10; Ireland, 9; England, 1; Canada, 1; Sweden, 1; Scotland, 1; Poland, 1; Italy, 1; Switzerland, 1. During the month there was a daily average of 1123.7 persons. The average cost of boarding and keeping each prisoner was 64½ cents, the amount expended during the month for running expenses, out of the jail appropriation being $1,929.26. Of the prisoners committed during the month, fifty-eight had no trade or profession. Seven of the prisoners had been teamsters, four shoemakers and four painters. No other trade is represented by more than two selections from its ranks. In the list of crimes, petit larceny leads with 44 cases, grand larceny scores 11, assault to kill, 12, robbery in the first degree, 5; burglary in the second degree and larceny, 8; assault and battery, 4.

Building Improvements.

The books of the Commissioner of Public Buildings show an increase of building. Today sixteen permits were issued for improvements aggregating several thousand dollars. A permit was issued to Freund Bros. to erect two adjoining buildings for store and dwelling purposes at the southeast corner of Lynch and Liberty streets at an estimated cost of $12,000.

AN INCENDIARY BLAZE.

Destruction of a Block of Cottages—A Dish Factory Burned.

FLOYD COURT-HOUSE, Va., March 2.—An incendiary fire occurred last night destroying the lively stables of T. Jett, burning fourteen horses and a yoke of oxen, besides a large quantity of forage and farming implements. There was no insurance. The loss is not known.

Oval Dish Factory Destroyed.

DETROIT, March 2.—The Evening Journal's special from Mancelona says: The Oval Dish factory burned last night, the engine-room and saw-mill department only being saved. Snow was used to fight the fire, water having given out. The loss is $20,000, partially insured. One hundred and fifty hands are thrown out of employment. The factory will be rebuilt at once.

NEW ORLEANS, La., March 2.—A fire which broke out at 11:30 o'clock last night in a block of small cottages on Annunciation street, between First and Second, destroyed two cottages on Annunciation street and four on First street. The loss is estimated at $10,000, and is fully covered by insurance.

ABOUT TOWN.

ED METZ, a teamster aged 19 years, was admitted to the City Hospital to-day. He had his left elbow crushed by being run over. The fracture was compound. He lived at No. 1333 South Eleventh street.

TO-DAY Robt. W. Goode was examined in the Frank Glover Congressional contest at F.

J. Donovan's office, Third and Pine streets, concerning the general features of the last election, the character and support given the candidates in various parts of the district, and similar general facts touching the race.
